

DYNAMITER'S OWN STORY OF TIMES PLANT EXPLOSION

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 5.—James B. McNamara's brief confession, penned by his own hand late yesterday, was made public today. It is as follows:

"I, James B. McNamara, defendant in the case of the people having heretofore pleaded guilty to the crime of murder, desire to make this statement of facts: and this is the truth:

"On the night of September 30, 1910, at 5:45 p. m., I placed in Ink Alley, a portion of the Times Building, a suit case containing sixteen sticks of 80 per cent. dynamite, set to explode at 1 o'clock the

"It was the intention to injure the building and scare the owners. I did not intend to take the life of anyone. I sincerely regret that these unfortunate men lost their lives. If the circumstances had been different, I might have been able to prevent the tragedy."

of my life would bring them back, I would gladly give it. In fact, in pleading guilty to murder in the first degree I have placed my life in the hands of the State.

(Signed) JAMES B. McNAMARA.

The confession covers one side of an ordinary sheet of paper and was written with a fountain pen supplied by one of the attorneys.

JAMES B. McNAMARA GETS LIFE SENTENCE FOR BOMB PLOT

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 5.—Under the terrific pressure which is being brought to bear upon them, John J. McNamara, sec-

Secretary of the International Bridge and Structural Iron Workers Union, and his brother, James B. McNamara, are expected to reveal the names of every member of the dynamite gang which for years

They will make a complete confession in return for light sentence. The confessions are expected to strike in very high places.

The prisoners were led into court before Judge Bordwell at 10 o'clock today for sentence; James B. McNamara expecting 15 years.

Plea for Clemency.

For both men District Attorney John D. Fredericks desired clemency—life imprisonment being sought for James R. and a sentence of between fourteen and twenty years for John J., the older brother, to whom this sentence means old age when brothers are sentenced.

With the announcement of the proposed plea for clemency came the information that the brothers had furnished information of great value in the investigation.

the far-reaching dampling conspiracy, and that the plan was to move them, immediately after sentence, with summonses to appear before the Federal Grand Jury. To that body they are expected to give evidence on both the Alford and

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS
NOTICE TO CREDITORS: The undersigned, executor of the last will and testament of Mrs. Mary Ann O'Connell, late of the County of Suffolk, do hereby give notice to all persons who are creditors of the said Mary Ann O'Connell, or who have claims against the estate of the said Mary Ann O'Connell, to present their claims and demands against the said estate to the undersigned, at his office, at 100 State Street, Boston, Massachusetts, on or before the 10th day of May, 1961, after which date the said claims and demands will not be paid out of the assets of the said estate. Dated at Boston, Massachusetts, this 1st day of April, 1961. WILLIAM J. O'CONNELL, Executor.

A letter of administration on the estate of said deceased to Sarah Drott, of said Chelsea, or to some other suitable person. You are hereby notified that the said Court will hear the said application on the 27th day of December, A. D. 1911, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any, why the said petition should not be granted. And hereupon the petition is hereby directed to give public notice thereof by publishing this citation once in each week, three successive weeks, in some newspaper published in said Boston, and to file said petition in said Court, and by mailing, post-paid, a copy hereof to each of said heirs, on or before the 20th day of said month of December, A. D. 1911. Witness, Robert Grant, my hand and seal of said Court, this 14th day of December, A. D. 1911.
